Digital

The word "Digital" is displayed in a vibrant red color. The font is a digital or pixelated style, where each letter is composed of many small, vertical and horizontal strokes, giving it a textured, blocky appearance. The letters are slightly irregular, with some strokes appearing longer or shorter than others, enhancing the digital aesthetic.

Docked

The word "Docked" is displayed in the same red, pixelated, digital font style as "Digital". It features a similar textured, blocky appearance with vertical and horizontal strokes forming each letter. The overall look is consistent with the "Digital" text above it.
